peace.

it does not mean to be in a place

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Please Welcome Guest Worship Leader: Doug Klette

Doug worked in the area of counseling psychology in school systems throughout New England, Franklin County Mental Health, the University of Vermont, and Castleton State University for 35 years.

He believes, people often get caught up in conflict, and resentment, and believe there is no way out. They ignore the words of God at the very moment they need to reflect on them. When we behave as God has taught us, we are better able to experience hope, wisdom, and peace.

A Special Note of Gratitude From All of Us At FCC:

Thank you, Pastor Jessica Moore for all you do. Enjoy your well-deserved vacation.

Pastor Jessica's Vacation August 2-23

MORNING PRAYER<sup>1</sup> (Unison)

Abundant God, we wait for you with longing, hope, and anticipation. May your kin-dom be realized in this community. May your people be your ambassadors. May your love be our propeller in the world and our beacon to direct us home. Fill us with the bread of life and nourish our spirits to be your good news in the world. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION<sup>1</sup> (Unison)

Loving God, Divine Comforter,
Peace is absent from our hearts. From pain to grief, and from turmoil to frustrations, we yearn for what we lack. We ache for the pains and injustices of this world to cease. What we forget is to pause and voice our concerns to you. How can we better integrate your presence in our lives? When have we forgotten to include you in our joys and heartaches? Move us to seek you and speak the burdens of our hearts to you. May your Spirit refill our souls with peace. Amen.
